Dr Meigs, of Elko, was in town yesterday.

Judge Clough, of Plumas county, Cal., is in town.

Deacon Bill Gibson paid Wadsworth a visit yesterday.

John W. Mackey was on yesterday morning's train eastward bound.

Paint your house with the best mixed paints. Sold by Lange & Schmitt.

Hon. Frank Newlands will arrive at Reno on this evening's train from the East.

Col. M. N. Stone predicts that Salt Lake City will have a population of 100,000 inside of a year.

Geo. Shaefer returned to Truckee yesterday to attend to his lumber mills and other business.

D. B. Williams, Postmaster at Tuscarora, passed through yesterday on his way to San Francisco.

Newcastle, (Cal.), peaches are in the Reno market. They are unusually large and luscious this year.

General Robert Keating passed through from San Francisco yesterday morning on his way to the Comstock.

Wm. Thompson, of Reno, has concluded to take his stable of trotting and running horses to the Carson race track to train.

The argument in the case of Price vs. Virginia and Gold Hill Water Co. closed yesterday afternoon and the case was submitted to the Court.

The old Lady Bryan hoisting works in Flawley District were destroyed by fire about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. It is thought that the fire was accidental.

Seven trout, aggregating as many pounds, were hooked inside of an hour yesterday morning, by a single fisherman, between the Virginia street and the railroad bridge.

This weather is not devoid of advantages. It is a climatic blessing to impecunious young swains whose best girls possess average stowage capacity for ice cream and sodawater.

Charley Michelson, who has been out at Elko reporting the Pot's case for the Examiner, arrived here last evening and will proceed to Virginia to-day to visit friends in that city.

Mr. Bury Dament, Manager of "Held by the Enemy," paid the JOURNAL office a visit yesterday afternoon. The company is billed to appear at the Opera House on the night of the 28th inst.

Wm. Chamberlain received yesterday from the Carson Catchery a lot of Eastern red-speckled trout minnows, which he will feed in his fish pond until strong enough to be transferred to the river.

Bishop Leonard will not be here to-day as expected, being detained by sickness. He hopes, however, to get here by Tuesday. Confirmation services are therefore postponed to Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Edward Kelley and her daughter Rebe, and her niece, Miss Stella Rhodes, arrived last evening from Winnemucca. Mrs. Kelley comes to visit her sisters, Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Turritin, and Miss Stella, who has been teaching school at Winnemucca, returns to spend her vacation with her mother and sister.

The Jingers will appear at the Opera House to-morrow night. It is the best colored troupe that has ever visited the coast and their tour through California was attended with the greatest success, and elicited the highest encomiums from the press wherever they appeared. Their merits, combined with the reduced prices of admission ought to insure a crowded house.

The Potol.

In its report of local mining news the Virginia Enterprise says of the Potol. The points of interest in this mine is the bottom of the winze below the 930 level. The ore streak averages nearly 5 feet in width, half of which will assay about $70 a ton, and the whole of which will mill about $40 a ton. Of course nothing positive can be ascertained as to in which way the ore deposit is making, having in eight only what is shown by the bottom of the winze; but there are indications that the strength comes from the north side. The development being in a region in which there is a large area of virgin ground, and in a section out of the line of former explorations, there is a possibility of finding a very valuable deposit of excellent ore of milling grade.

A GREAT WAR PLAY.

Wm. Gillette's Famous Drama, to be Given Here Shortly.

"Held by the Enemy," presented by the original New York company, will be the attraction at McKiesick's Opera House next Saturday night. Concerning this famous play, the Boston Advertiser says:

"A very large house at the Park Theater last night welcomed the return of William Gillette's spirited melodrama in this city. With the outline and features of this drama of the war Boston theater-goers are familiar, but it is simple fairness to recognize once more the skill and spirit of the composition and its entirely justifiable and natural blending of stirring and humorous effects. The life and wit of the play are indeed practically attested already in the most unmistakable way by its widespread and lasting success on the boards, and the general approval of its true tone and pith, the more clearly evident by contrast with the laborious patchwork and forcibly injected features of the average melodramas."

"As a whole, in finish and precision of staging and detail, the rendering was the most complete and effective ever given in this city. From beginning to end the movement is borne on with a spirit and sharpness of execution, a crispness of attack, to borrow a suggested phrase, and a concord of action which is essential to the full effect of melodrama, but is unfortunately so rarely shown. So much the more reason for full and hearty recognition when it is found as here. The scenery and setting of the series of war views were good throughout, and the cast in the fort where the court martial takes place, and the division headquarters under fire, are notably realistic. In the latter scene we hear the sharp clattering of hoofs, ending with the heavy tramping in the courtyard as the spurred horses of the flying orderlies come galloping in, and the receding sounds of departing feet are given with equal effect. Orderlies and officers, covered with grime and dust, enter, report and leave in the disciplined hurry of a hot engagement; the wounded colonel totters in and sinks fainting in the camp chair at the dispatch table, shells burst and shriek through the air, stately buildings in the city are pierced and crumble, and with a closing crash the wall of the guard house caves in upon the stage with spurring flames and stifling smoke and dust."

"With rare unison and individual ability the actors in the drama conjoin to make each scene impressive. The rendering of even the slightest parts was remarkably intelligent and spirited, and the fact that none were slighted alone entitles the presentation to high praise. The stage manager and author deserve success, and have done all that they can be fairly called upon to do to secure it."

A Competitive Examination.

From the fact that School Superintendent Ring received a telegram yesterday from Congressman Martine, requesting him to make arrangements for the appointment of a Board to examine candidates for the Naval Academy cadetship from this State, we infer that there is some hitch about young Haley of Eureka, whom it was reported had received the appointment. Be that as it may, a Board is to be chosen, and a competitive examination held. Here is offered an opportunity for the bright youths of Nevada to compete for a prize which in our opinion is vastly preferable to a West Point cadetship appointment. Due notice will be given in regard to the time and place of holding the examination, and those who desire to enter the lists will do well to brush up their wits and book knowledge in readiness for the contest.

San Francisco Census.

The Supervisor of the San Francisco census enumerators says the population of that city will fall 15,000 below the average estimate, due to a great number of residents being out of town at Summer resorts. The enumerators state that the poverty, suffering and squalor encountered in some districts is truly appalling. They find also that a large number of foreign born people, now citizens, are unable to read or write.

Card of Thanks.

It was voted at the last meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union that the ladies of the Union should publicly thank the Reno JOURNAL for the many kindnesses shown them in the past in free printing and the interest shown generally in temperance work.

Want's an Indian School.

The Bishop Register wants an Indian school in Owens Valley and says the Putes themselves appreciate the advantages of education and have themselves set up a school at Big Pine.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

Lawyer Wins' Denial.

Reno, June 20, 1890.

Ed. JOURNAL: The following appeared in the JOURNAL of this morning:

The Reese River Reville makes the following statement of the result of the suit of Lander county vs. the Central Pacific Railroad Company, to recover taxes due on the defendant's property in that county in 1889. The railroad company tendered $18,000 in payment of $25,000. The county obtained judgment for $25,104. The defense of a total suit cost the railroad $4,000, making a total of $30,104, $4,000 more than the original amount demanded by Lander county.

For unblushing, unjustifiable and unnecessary falsehood the above surpasses anything I have seen in public print for some time. The county of Lander brought suit to recover a judgment against the railroad company for $38,764 32 with costs. The county only recovered a judgment for $17,933 15 with, of course, the statutory penalty added, about which there was no dispute. After this penalty was added it only amounted to a total of $25,420 28, or over $13,000 less than the amount sued for. Before the penalty was added by statute, the railroad company tendered to, and offered to pay, to the county $17,941 03, or $7 87 more than the judgment recovered, not taking into account the penalty and costs, which the railroad company did not expect, nor did it make any effort to defeat or prevent. Again we suggest that the scribe who does the disreputable work for the Reville had better cultivate a little more respect for the truth. J. L. WINKS.

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for thy disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Nauright, N. J.

N. B. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla
